When autumn comes the students at La Salle-Peru have three organizations of which they are traditionally proud. They are football, cheerleaders and Cavallettes. On these pages are colorful pictures of the boys and girls who put in long hours of practice before they reach the peaks and wear the Red and Green to bring fame to our school both at home and away.

It was boys against girls in an impromptu snowball fight on the Sixth Street sidewalk, after it had been cleared of drifts.

Innovations Featured 1967

L-P advanced five boys to the sectional wrestling meet. Two of them were first place winners in the district meet. At left is Steve Ricklefs, 120 pound champion.

Bob Yelverton, right, won the district 138-pound championship to move on to the Sectional.

An innovation in our Senior year was a Computer Dance, sponsored by the American Field Service. Checking "Date Cards" are Sue Omahen at the machine, Jim Ramenofsky, Lauren Lopatic and Dean May.

Our Voice of Democracy contest winners. FRONT: Nance Cole, second (third in district); Tina Bray, third, REAR: Mrs. Frances Martin, La Salle VFW Auxiliary president; Joseph Panzica, local chairman; Bridget Cawley, first, and Mr. Christian, speech teacher and debate coach.

Another innovation this year was an exchange of assembly programs between La Salle-Peru and Hall. The L-P German band included Dirk Giacomini, Terry Donnelly, Dale Antanitus, Fred Blott and Dave Kotowski.

Rotarians and Scholars

P.A. Announcers. FRONT, Jim Yesinowski, REAR, Dean May, and Jim Ramenofsky.

La Salle-Peru had two teams in the Senior Bowl at Streator. The Red Team included Pam Skopore and Jim Yesinowski, SEATED, and Dale Antanitus, George Herbolsheimer and Mike Ricci.

Members of the Senior Bowl Green Team had as its members Caroline Perry, Judy Urban, Fred Blott, Andrew Moriber and Steve Swanson.

Conducts School Elections

American Government Club members pass out ballots to voters.

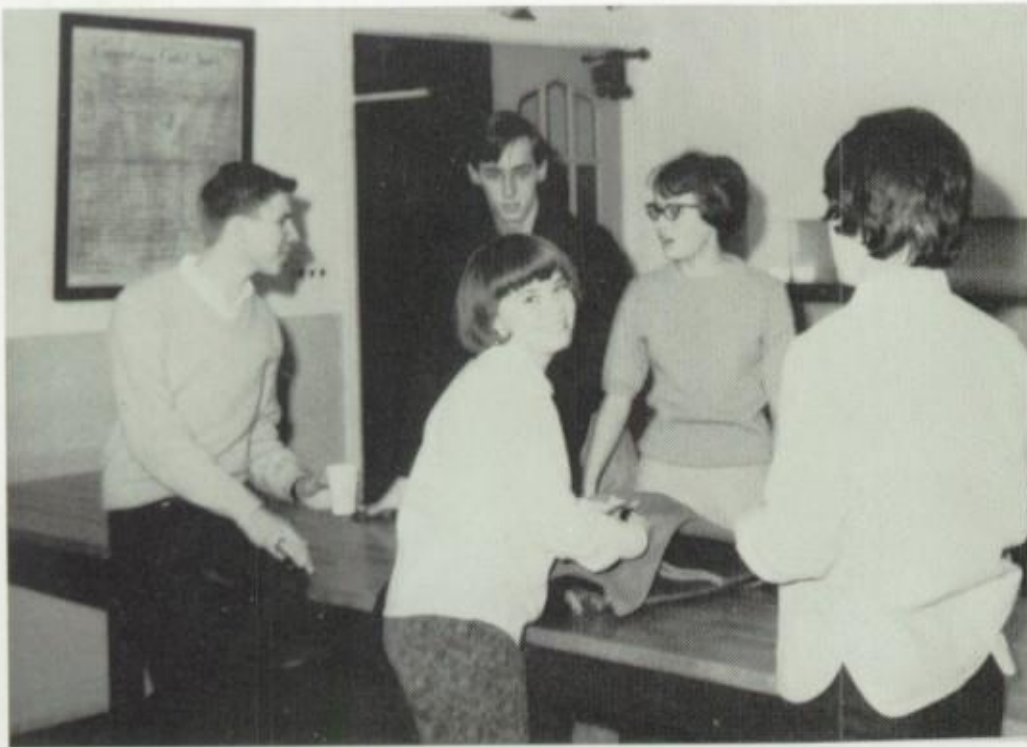

Voters wait in line to mark their ballots.

Frank Trebusak observes students as they place their ballots in the box.

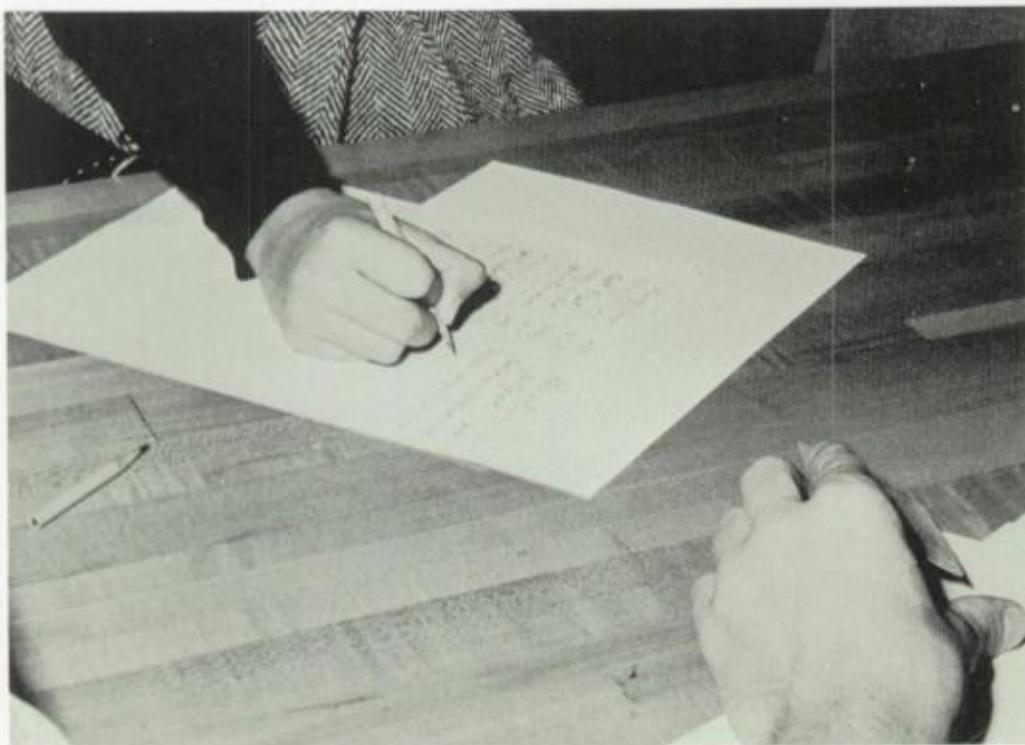

and Outside Activities

Mary Peters, an American Government Club member, works at the coat check at a basketball game.

In McCormack Memorial Library . . .

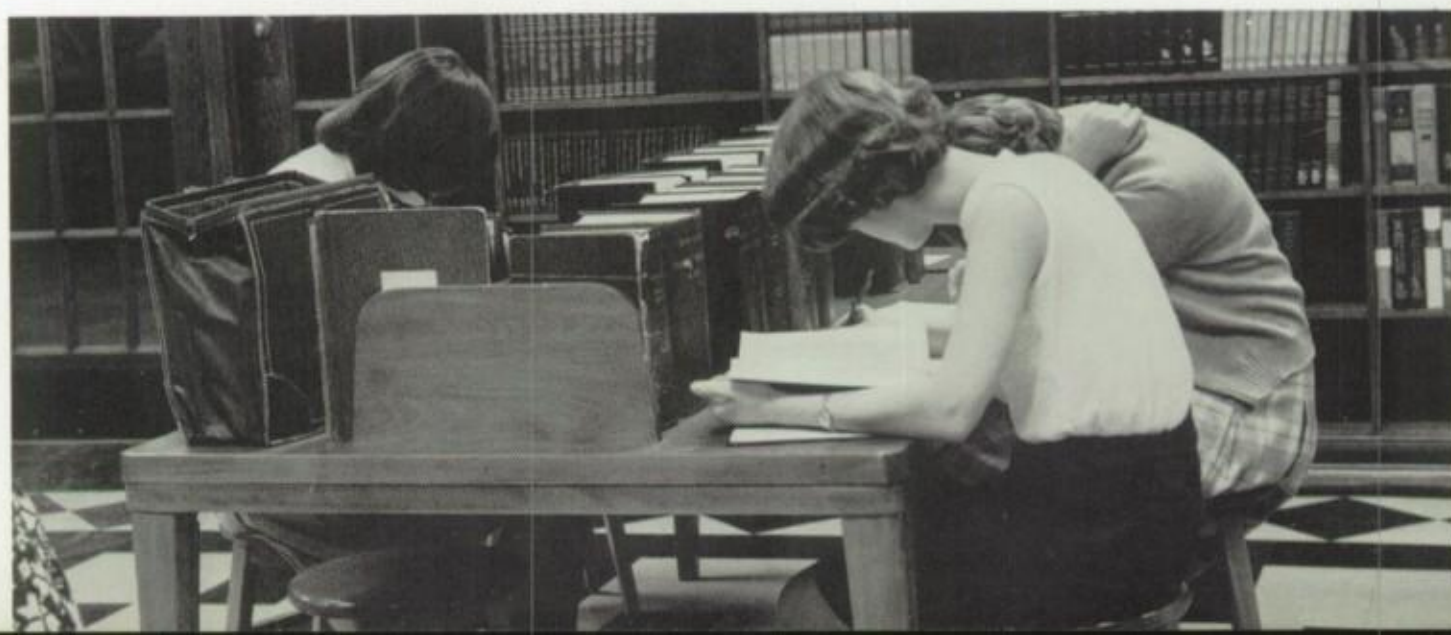

PROMPTNESS is arriving on time from the study hall. Bradley Entwistle presents his library permit to Sara Crane. Carolyn Perry and Sara, Seniors, are fifth period library assistants.

EFFICIENCY is knowing how to use library tools. Above, Roy Rimmele, Rick Logston and Mark Andracke (facing the camera) know the card catalog is the index to the 30,000 volumes in the book collection. Below, Bette McEwan, Linda Freebairn and Anne Fox have learned that using periodical indexes simplifies the task of finding information in magazines and newspapers.

TRAVELING is visiting far-off places without taking a step from L-P. One's journey may be as extensive as his imagination suggests. Books, magazines and pamphlets may be selected to complement any route one chooses. Janet Zeman and Cathy Stanton find helpful to their journey the large globe presented to the library by the Class of 1944 in reunion.

CULTURE is appreciating the artistic atmosphere of the beautifully appointed reading room. Among the art treasures housed in the library is the "Tunisian Water Carrier," which won the Prix de Rome in 1893. To read the inscription on the base of the bronze, Sharon Huettemann and Anne Fox have only to glance sideways from dictionaries they are consulting.

SERVICE is satisfying the needs and interests of both the faculty and the students. McCormack Memorial Library is considered to be one of the outstanding high school libraries in the state.

SELF-DISCIPLINE is recognizing that the white ropes indicate the stacks are closed to students. Jeff Wobrock waits patiently for one of the library clerks to return with the book he requested. Mrs. William Van de Wyngaerde, at work behind the circulation desk, and Miss Sybil Cummings share responsibilities at the south desk.

BEING WELL INFORMED is finding out what is going on in the world. A quick look at the headlines keeps Bob Williams, Dan Costello and Ted Samolitis alert to current events at home and abroad.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP is checking out materials which are needed for period or overnight use, and returning them on time and in good condition. Carolyn Perry has stamped the date due in a book selected by Nancy Robinson.

Informal Scenes Show

Robert Schmidt and Barbara Papke (IVCC) rehearse a duet from "The Sound of Music."

In the vocal music department are framed posters, in colorful tempera, recalling the ten musical productions which were directed by Mr. Robert Manahan since he came to La Salle—Peru in the autumn of 1960. The spring musicals by the high school and junior college choruses were: "Oklahoma!" (1961), "South Pacific" (1962), "Bye, Bye, Birdie" (1963), "Fiorello!" (1964), "My Fair Lady" (1965); "110 in the Shade" (1966) and "The Sound of Music" (1967). Four summer stage productions were also presented. They were "Take Me Along," "The Music Man," "She Loves Mr.," "The Fantasticks."

Mr. Manahan smiles with satisfaction during a class meetings.

Barefooted Joyce Ricci, learns from Jeff Linder how to play the guitar for her role as Maria in "The Sound of Music."

Sue Klansek and Joyce Ricci are being coached by Mr. Manahan.

Choral Department Activities

Musicals directed by Mr. Manahan have become traditional features of the school year, because of popularity of choice, excellent casting, expert direction, striking stage settings and professional lighting.

There has always been a heavy demand for tickets, and a climax was reached when "The Sound of Music" was sold out for four night in a two-day period.

The high school choruses—Freshman Boys, Freshman Girls, Mixed and Advanced, and the Junior college Collegiate Chorale join in presenting the spring musicals, and the leads are chosen from the chorale and the Advanced Chorus.

The Band Adds Thrills and

The band forms a "Judy"—a tribute to our first foreign exchange student, Judy Abraham.

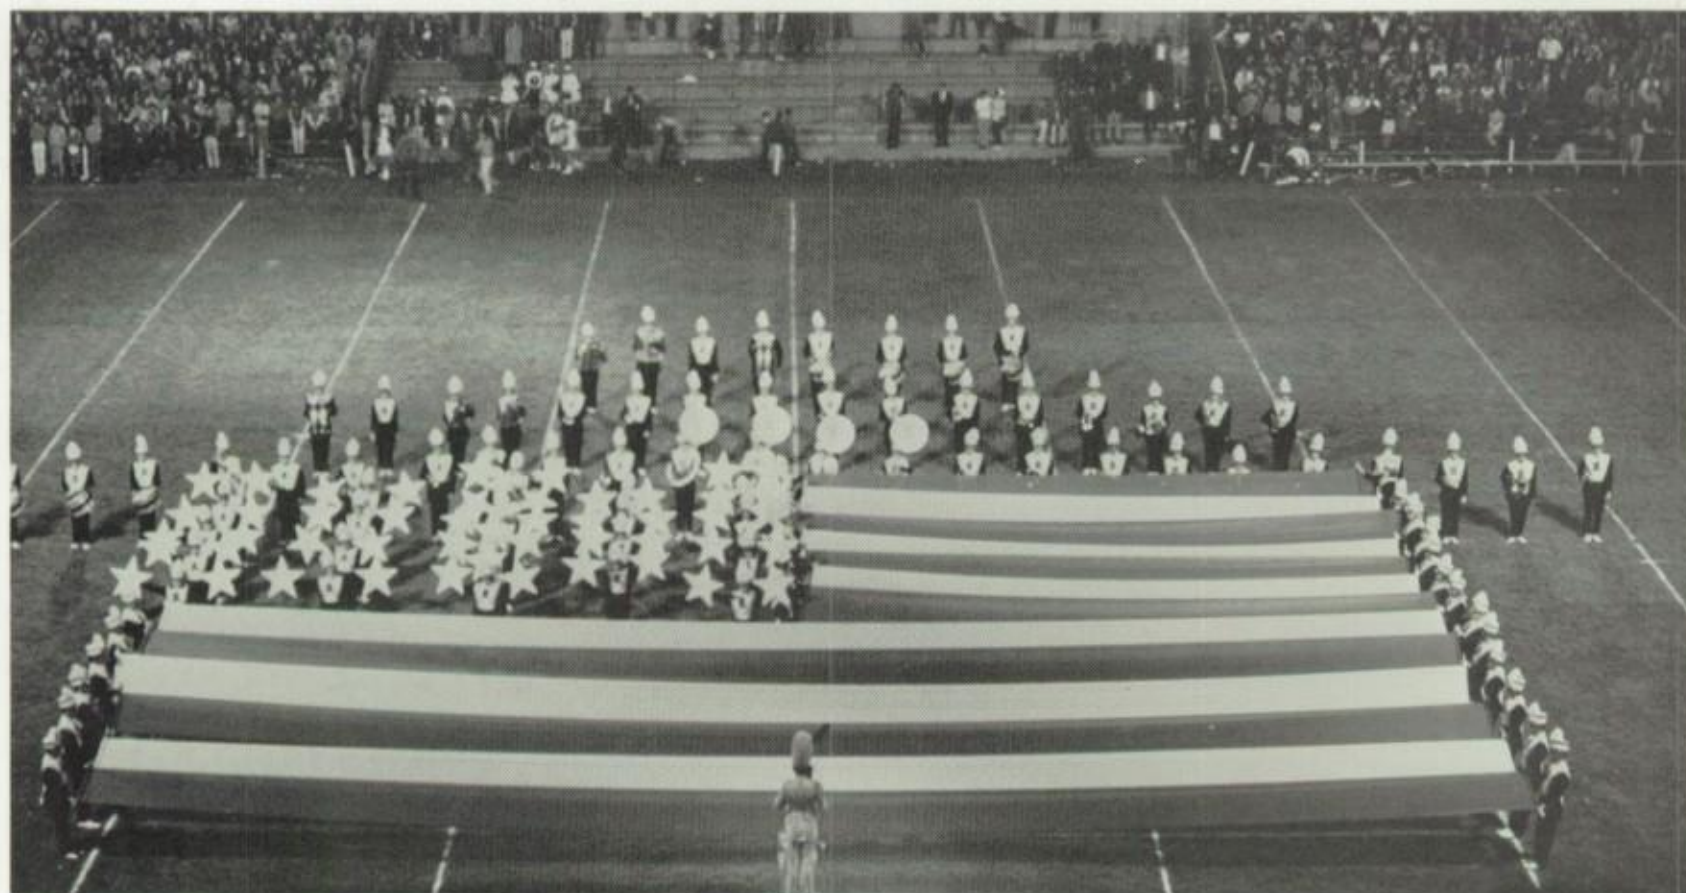

A daily practice is of great importance to the members of the band in preparing for football shows.

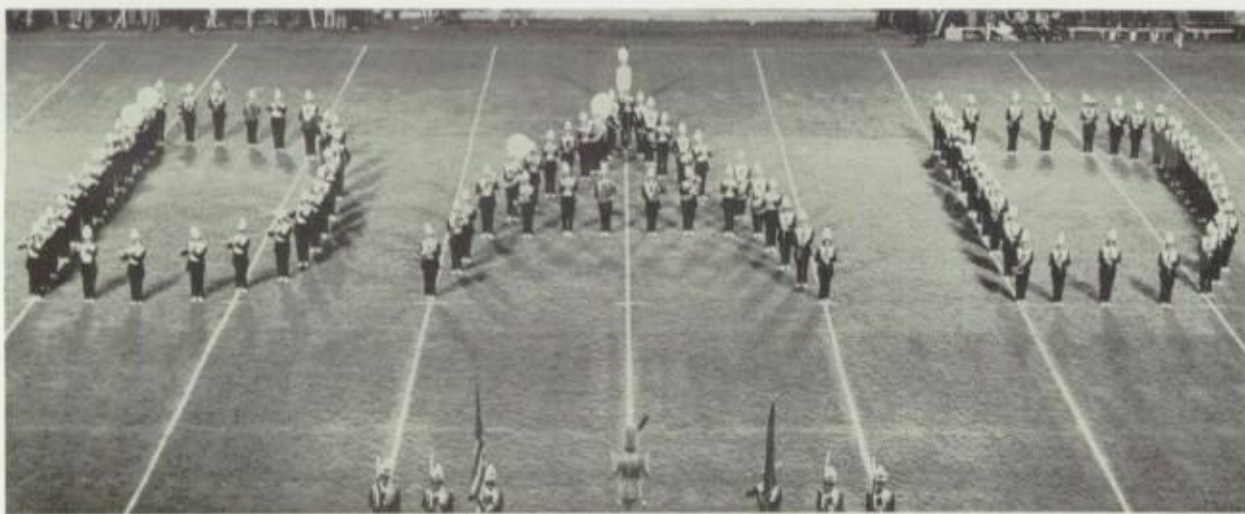

Jeff Taggart, drum major, directs the band at a practice for the Pre-Game Show.

This is the famous flag which won honors at Virginia Beach.

Excitement to Football Games

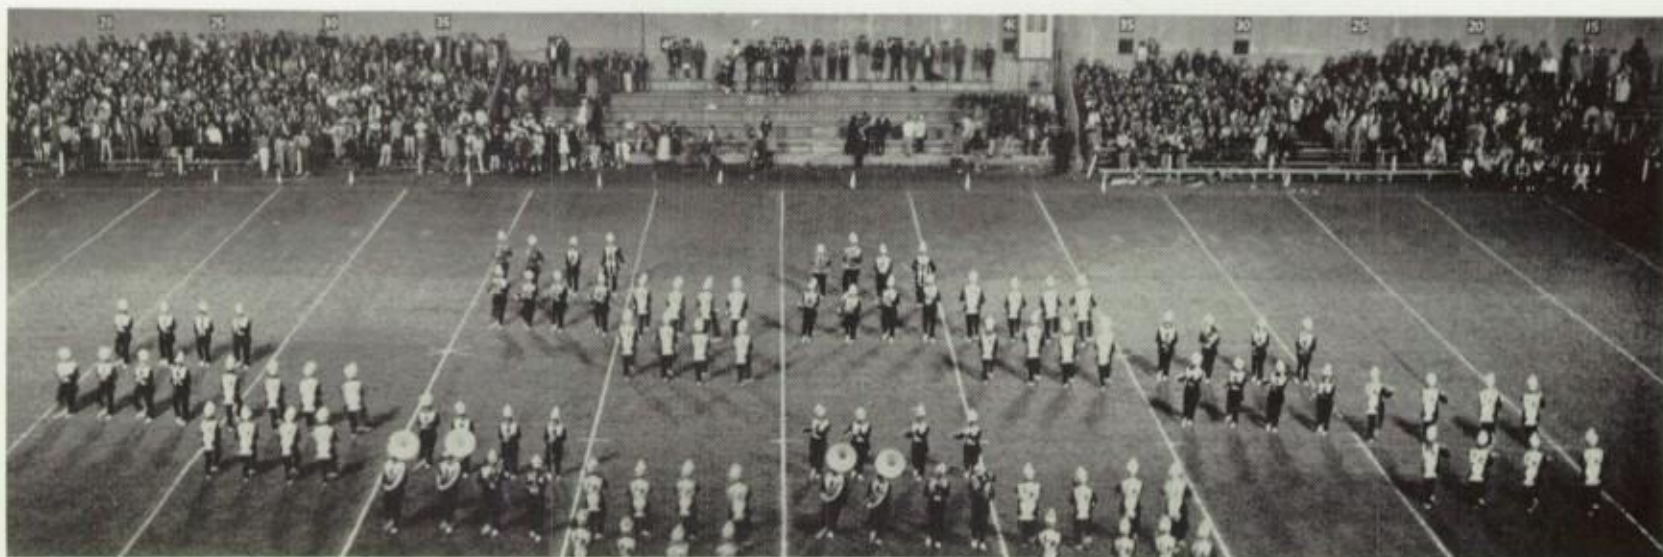

The band forms a "Dad" for the dedicated fathers of the L-P football players.

As the band is in step, the first show proves practice makes perfect.

The band is now in position to execute one of its intricate maneuvers.

The varsity basketball team ended the season with 22 victories and five defeats, the best record in the history of the school. It won the Illinois Valley Conference title, going undefeated in 10 games; finished second in the North Central Conference, which was won by Dixon; won all 10 home games, won the Princeton Regional title, and then bowed to Toluca in the Streator Sectional.

John Youngdale was picked for the NCIC first all-star team; Brian Ellberg for the second team, Gary Lamps for the third team and Tony Sorrentino made the honorable mention list. Youngdale was third in scoring in the NCIC with 198 points; Ellberg was sixth with 165.

The Sophomores won six games and lost 16, but three of the defeats were by one point, one by two, one by three and two by four points.

The Freshman "A" team had a fine season, with 18 victories and five defeats. Three of the defeats were at the hands of Ottawa Marquette, including the Illinois Valley tournament title game, 35 to 34. The Freshman "B" team won five games and lost only one.
